Quilvest Capital Partners Annual Investor Day – 2026 Edition

On 14 October 2026, Quilvest Capital Partners ("Quilvest") welcomed its investors and partners at Palais de Tokyo in Paris for the 2026 Edition of its Annual Investor Day, a day dedicated to insight, exchange, networking and shared ambition.

The day in brief

Opening: CEO Alexis Meffre set the tone, followed by a macro view of private markets from Jean-Marc Le Roux and Guillaume Tobler of Bain & Company.

Our convictions, strategy by strategy: Buyout with Thomas Vatier, Benjamin Sass, Loëiz Lagadec, Kevin Deemer and Guillaume Laboureix; US Private Credit with Benton Cummings and Charles Davis; Primaries and Co-Investments with Finley John; and Secondaries, with a focus on GP-led, with Charles Aponso.

Voices from our portfolio: the founders' perspective, moderated by Benjamin Sass and Anthony Lesaicherre, with Jonny Bauer and Alex Lubar of Fundamentalco, and Laurent Es Skheifi of Spacivox.

The keynote: Dr. Luc Julia, co-creator of Siri and a leading AI expert, moderated by Marta Wypusz-Alfini, for a thought-provoking look at where AI is heading and its implications.

The evening: the day carried on with a jazz cocktail on the terrace, with the Eiffel Tower as a backdrop, and a gala dinner in the Galerie Haute of Palais de Tokyo.

Quilvest extends its warmest thanks to its investors, partners and friends for their trust and engagement, and to all Quilvest Capital Partners colleagues whose commitment and dedication made this edition possible.

We look forward to seeing you for the 2027 Edition.
